

Lankhorst Engineered Products bv Quality Statement

Lankhorst Engineered Products bv forms part of the Royal Lankhorst Euronete group bv, and is involved in the design, production and delivery of plastic end products as well as recycled plastic products.

The Mission Statement of Lankhorst Engineered Products bv. is as follows:

Lankhorst Engineered Products bv is an excellent company that long-term value creates for its stockholders. A company that strives to be an responsible employer for its employees, develops opportunities for its employees and contributes to the society. Lankhorst Engineered Products bv will always strives for leadership in the markets were we operates and the production processes which we uses.

Lankhorst Engineered Products bv contributes to sustainable development bij using environmentally friendly technics. For example, we use recycled material, were it is possible.

This mission will be executed within its international context.

The Management of Lankhorst Engineered Products bv. is committed to making all means available to ensure that the safety of its employees in the workplace as well as the quality of the products that it distributes are not compromised in any way.

For the future, it is also imperative that Lankhorst Engineered Products bv. is able to continue to meet the ever increasing quality demands of the customer, and to ensure that the organisational processes allow the company to serve it's customers in an efficient and safe manner and with the highest levels of quality. For this reason, Lankhorst Engineered Products bv. sees it as a priority to continuously improve upon its existing management system, to ensure that the company is able to work towards continual excellence in all areas of operations.

Lankhorst Engineered Products bv. values its employees and also strives to promote continuous improvement through feedback from its workforce. Every employee or third party worker is encouraged to submit their comments relating to working conditions, risk control and product quality to their immediate supervisor.

Employees or third party contractors, including employees hired from temporary employment agencies are required to understand and conform to the Quality Management System before they begin any work onsite for Lankhorst Engineered Products bv.

Lankhorst Engineered Products views the term Quality as meaning that all internal and external customers that are being supplied with products and services must receive a level of service that meets or exceeds their requirements and expectations.

Signature EF

Nov. 2008
E.Flohr
General Director

